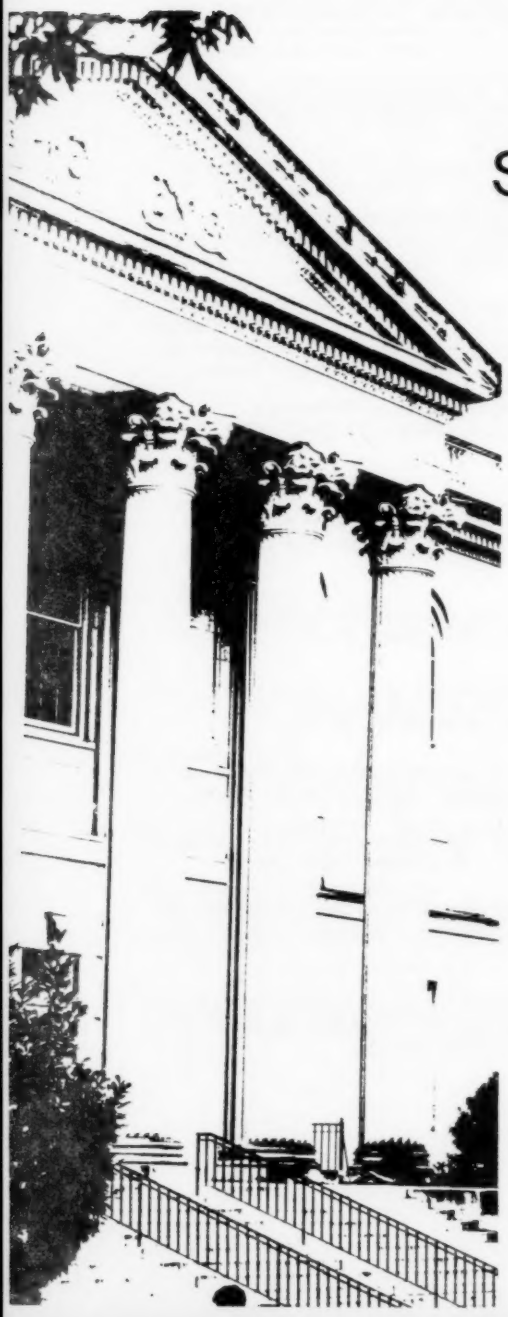
POPULAR GOVERNMENT

INDEX
Volume 40

Summer 1974-Spring 1975



INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

POPULAR GOVERNMENT Index

Summer 1974 - Spring 1975
Volume 40

A

Accuracy and uniformity of property tax assessments in North Carolina, by C. Donald Liner. 40 (Winter 1975), 29-35.

Aspects of regionalism in North Carolina, by David M. Lawrence. 40 (Summer 1974), 20-24.

B

Ball, Clyde L.
Legislative ethics: ends and means. 40 (Spring 1975), 18-22, 26.

BOOK REVIEWS
The changing population of the southeast, by John W. Florin and Richard J. Kopec. Reviewed by Charles D. Liner. 40 (Winter 1975), 14.

Land use without zoning, by Bernard H. Siegan. 40 (Summer 1974), 51-52. Reviewed by Philip P. Green, Jr.

Boxley, J. Max
The North Carolina parole system. 40 (Fall 1974), 53-57.

C

Campaign costs in North Carolina: the 1972 elections, by Jack D. Fleer. 40 (Summer 1974), 38-49.

Campbell, William A.
The property tax in the 1970's, by William A. Campbell. 40 (Summer 1974), 12-16.

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA
Community appearance commissions: Chapel Hill's experience, by Sidney Cohn. 40 (Winter 1975), 15-26.

Citizen boards--do they serve a purpose? By Dorothy J. Kiester. 40 (Winter 1975), 40-43.

Citizen participation in shaping public policy, by Dorothy J. Kiester. 40 (Summer 1974), 33-37.

Clarke, Stevens H.
Crime and delinquency in North Carolina. 40 (Fall 1974), 6-15.

Cohn, Sidney
Community appearance commissions: Chapel Hill's experience. 40 (Winter 1975), 15-26.

Community appearance commissions: Chapel Hill's experience, by Sidney Cohn. 40 (Winter 1975), 15-26.

CORRECTIONS
The North Carolina parole system, by J. Max Boxley, Foil Essick, and Meredith F. Miller. 40 (Fall 1974), 53-57.

The North Carolina prison system in responsive transition, by Walter L. Kautsky. 40 (Fall 1974), 46-51.

Rehabilitation of criminal offenders, by Seymour L. Halleck. 40 (Fall 1974), 40-45.

COURTS
The courts and legislative procedure, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Winter 1975), 66-73.

The courts and the criminal justice system, by Bert M. Montague. 40 (Fall 1974), 36-39, 57.

The role of the private attorney, by Wade Smith. 40 (Fall 1974), 32-35.

The solicitor: his influence and power, by Jack Thompson. 40 (Fall 1974), 27-31.

The courts and legislative procedure, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Winter 1975), 66-73.

The courts and the criminal justice system, by Bert M. Montague. 40 (Fall 1974), 36-39, 57.

Cox, Robert A., Jr.
New federalism, new localism, or what? 40 (Summer 1974), 28-32.

Crime and delinquency in North Carolina, by Stevens H. Clarke. 40 (Fall 1974), 6-15.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE, see also COURTS: CORRECTIONS

CRIMINAL JUSTICE
The courts and the criminal justice system, by Bert M. Montague. 40 (Fall 1974), 36-39, 57.

Crime and delinquency in North Carolina, by Stevens H. Clarke. 40 (Fall 1974), 6-15.

The criminal justice system in North Carolina: summary and comment, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 40 (Fall 1974), 58-61.

Decriminalization, diversion, and pretrial release: an introduction, by Michael R. Crowell. 40 (Fall 1974), 16-26.

The role of the private attorney, by Wade Smith. 40 (Fall 1974), 32-35.

The use of the criminal sanction, by Douglas R. Gill. 40 (Fall 1974), 1-5, 15.

The criminal justice system in North Carolina: summary and comment, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 40 (Fall 1974), 58-61.

Crowell, Michael R.
Decriminalization, diversion, and pretrial release: an introduction. 40 (Fall 1974), 16-26.

D

Decriminalization, diversion, and pretrial release: an introduction, by Michael R. Crowell. 40 (Fall 1974), 16-26.

Dennis, Stephen N.
Recent changes in the appropriations process. 40 (Spring 1975), 11-17.

Does North Carolina need annual sessions? 40 (Spring 1975), 23-26.

Drennan, James C.
The 1974 General Election: statistics on political party strength, voter registration and voter turnout. 40 (Spring 1975), 45-51, 65.

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA
Durham makes the most of revenue-sharing, by Mark H. Webbink. 40 (Winter 1975), 36-39.

Durham rejects city/county consolidation, by Warren J. Wicker. 40 (Winter 1975), 27-28.

Two approaches to the budget-making process, by A. John Vogt. 40 (Winter 1975), 53-65.

Durham makes the most of revenue-sharing, by Mark H. Webbink. 40 (Winter 1975), 36-39.

Durham rejects city/county consolidation, by Warren J. Wicker. 40 (Winter 1975), 27-28.

E

Economic problems and opportunities facing North Carolina governments in the future, by Charles D. Liner. 40 (Summer 1974), 4-8.

The economics of landlord/tenant reform in smaller cities, by Michael A. Stegman and Howard J. Sumka. 40 (Winter 1975), 1-14.

EDUCATION, see SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

Effects of litigation on mental retardation centers, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 40 (Winter 1975), 44-52.

ELECTIONS
Campaign costs in North Carolina: the 1972 elections, by Jack D. Fleer. 40 (Summer 1974), 38-49.

The 1974 General Election: statistics on political party strength, voter registration, and voter turnout, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III, and James C. Drennan. 40 (Spring 1975), 45-51, 65.

Essick, Foil.
The North Carolina parole system. 40 (Fall 1974), 53-57.

F

The fate of local bond referendums, by David M. Lawrence. 40 (Summer 1974), 8-11.

Ferrell, Joseph S.
The courts and legislative procedure. 40 (Winter 1975), 66-73.

Local legislation in the North Carolina General Assembly: an evaluation. 40 (Spring 1975), 31-35, 44.

FERRELL, JOSEPH S. (continued)
North Carolina's share of federal revenue-sharing funds, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Summer 1974), 50.

FINANCE AND TAXATION, see also PROPERTY TAXATION

FINANCE AND TAXATION
Durham makes the most of revenue-sharing, by Mark H. Webbink. 40 (Winter 1975), 36-39.

Economic problems and opportunities facing North Carolina governments in the future, by Charles D. Liner. 40 (Summer 1974), 4-8.

The fate of local bond referendums, by David M. Lawrence. 40 (Summer 1974), 8-11.

New federalism, new localism, or what? By Robert A. Cox, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 28-32.

North Carolina's share of federal revenue-sharing funds, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Summer 1974), 50.

Recent changes in the appropriations process, by Stephen N. Dennis. 40 (Spring 1975), 11-17.

Two approaches to the budget-making process, by A. John Vogt. 40 (Winter 1975), 53-65.

Fleer, Jack D.
Campaign costs in North Carolina: the 1972 elections. 40 (Summer 1974), 38-49.

G

Gill, Douglas R.
The use of the criminal sanction. 40 (Fall 1974), 1-5, 15.

Green, Philip P., Jr.
Land-use regulation: a state or local function --or both? 40 (Summer 1974), 17-19.

Local government in the 1970's--a special issue. 40 (Summer 1974), 1-3.

Review of: Land use without zoning, by Bernard H. Siegan. 40 (Summer 1974), 51-52.

H

Halleck, Seymour L.
Rehabilitation of criminal offenders. 40 (Fall 1974), 40-45.

HEALTH LAW
Effects of litigation on mental retardation centers, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 40 (Winter 1975), 44-52.

Heath, Milton S., Jr.
Interim legislative studies. 40 (Spring 1975), 36-44.

HOUSING
The economics of landlord/tenant reform in smaller cities, by Michael A. Stegman and Howard J. Sumka. 40 (Winter 1975), 1-14.

I

INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS
Aspects of regionalism in North Carolina, by David M. Lawrence. 40 (Summer 1974), 20-24.

Durham rejects city/county consolidation, by Warren J. Wicker. 40 (Winter 1975), 27-28.

New federalism, new localism, or what? By Robert A. Cox, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 28-32.

Interim legislative studies, by Milton S. Heath, Hr, 49 (Spring 1975), 36-44.

K

Kautsky, Walter L.
The North Carolina prison system in responsive transition. 40 (Fall 1974), 46-51.

Kiester, Dorothy J.
Citizen boards--do they serve a purpose? 40 (Winter 1975), 40-43.

Citizen participation in shaping public policy. 40 (Summer 1974), 33-37.

L

Land-use regulation: a state or local function--or both? By Philip P. Green, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 17-19.

Lawrence, David M.
Aspects of regionalism in North Carolina. 40 (Summer 1974), 20-24.

The fate of local bond referendums. 40 (Summer 1974), 8-11.

LEGISLATION AND THE LEGISLATURE
The courts and legislative procedure, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Winter 1975), 66-73.

Does North Carolina need annual sessions? 40 (Spring 1975), 23-26.

Interim legislative studies, by Milton S. Heath, Jr. 40 (Spring 1975), 36-44.

Legislative ethics: ends and means, by Clyde L. Ball. 40 (Spring 1975), 18-22, 26.

The legislature and the legislator in North Carolina, by Will P. Whichard. 40 (Spring 1975), 6-10.

The property tax in the 1970's by William A. Campbell. 40 (Summer 1974), 12-16.

R

Recent changes in the appropriations process, by Stephen N. Dennis. 40 (Spring 1975), 11-17.

Rehabilitation of criminal offenders, by Seymour L. Halleck. 40 (Fall 1974), 40-45.

Rogister, George T.
Student distribution of nonschool-sponsored literature. 40 (Spring 1975), 52-65.

The role of the private attorney, by Wade Smith. 40 (Fall 1974), 32-35.

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION
Student distribution of nonschool-sponsored literature, by Robert E. Phay and George T. Rogister. 40 (Spring 1975), 52-65.

The solicitor: his influence and power, by Jack Thompson. 40 (Fall 1974), 27-31.

Smith, Wade.
The role of the private attorney. 40 (Fall 1974), 32-35.

Staff services to the North Carolina General Assembly, by William H. Potter, Jr. 40 (Spring 1975), 27-30.

State legislative modernization: a perspective, by Herbert L. Wiltsee. 40 (Spring 1975), 1-5, 17.

Stegman, Michael L.
The economics of landlord/tenant reform in smaller cities. 40 (Winter 1975), 1-14.

Student distribution of nonschool-sponsored literature, by Robert E. Phay and George T. Rogister. 40 (Spring 1975), 52-65.

Sumka, Howard J.
The economics of landlord/tenant reform in smaller cities. 40 (Winter 1975), 1-14.

T

Thomas, Mason P., Jr.
The criminal justice system in North Carolina: summary and comment. 40 (Fall 1974), 58-61.

Thompson, Jack.
The solicitor: his influence and power. 40 (Fall 1974), 27-31.

Turnbull, H. Rutherford III.
Effects of litigation on mental retardation centers. 40 (Winter 1975), 44-52.

The 1974 General Election: statistics on political party strength, voter registration and voter turnout. 40 (Spring 1975), 45-51, 65.

Two approaches to the budget-making process, by A. John Vogt. 40 (Winter 1975), 53-65.

U

The use of the criminal sanction, by Douglas R. Gill. 40 (Fall 1974), 1-5, 15.

V

Vogt, A. John.
Two approaches to the budget-making process. 40 (Winter 1975), 53-65.

W

Webbink, Mark H.
Durham makes the most of revenue-sharing. 40 (Winter 1975), 36-39.

Wichard, Willis P.
The legislature and the legislator in North Carolina. 40 (Spring 1975), 6-10.

Wicker, Warren J.
Durham rejects city/county consolidation. 40 (Winter 1975), 27-28.

North Carolina's local government of the future. 40 (Summer 1974), 25-27.

Wiltsee, Herbert L.
State legislative modernization: a perspective. 40 (Spring 1975), 1-5, 17.

Local legislation in the North Carolina General Assembly: an evaluation, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Spring 1975), 31-35, 44.

Staff services to the North Carolina General Assembly, by William H. Potter, Jr. 40 (Spring 1975), 27-30.

State legislative modernization: a perspective, by Herbert L. Wiltsee. 40 (Spring 1975), 1-5, 17.

Legislative ethics: ends and means, by Clyde L. Ball. 40 (Spring 1975), 18-22, 26.

The legislature and the legislator in North Carolina, by Willis Whichard. 40 (Spring 1975), 6-10.

Liner, Charles Donald
Accuracy and uniformity of property tax assessments in North Carolina. 40 (Winter 1975), 29-35.

Book review: The changing population of the southeast, by John W. Florin and Richard J. Kopec. 40 (Winter 1975), 14.

Economic problems and opportunities facing North Carolina governments in the future. 40 (Summer 1974), 4-8.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT, see also INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS; MUNICIPALITIES; COUNTIES

LOCAL GOVERNMENT
Economic problems and opportunities facing North Carolina governments in the future, by Charles D. Liner. 40 (Summer 1974), 4-8.

Local government in the 1970's--a special issue, by Philip P. Green, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 1-3.

North Carolina's local government of the future, by Warren J. Wicker. 40 (Summer 1974), 25-27.

Local government in the 1970's--a special issue, by Philip P. Green, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 1-3.

Local legislation in the North Carolina General Assembly: an evaluation, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Spring 1975), 31-35, 44.

M

Miller, Meredith F.
The North Carolina parole system. 40 (Fall 1974), 53-57.

Montague, Bert M.
The courts and the criminal justice system. 40 (Fall 1974), 36-39, 57.

N

New federalism, new localism, or what? By Robert A. Cox, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 28-32.

The 1974 General Election: statistics on political party strength, voter registration, and voter turnout, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III, and James C. Drennan. 40 (Spring 1975), 45-51, 65.

North Carolina's local government of the future, by Warren J. Wicker. 40 (Summer 1974), 25-27.

The North Carolina parole system, by J. Max Boxley, Foil Essick, and Meredith F. Miller. 40 (Fall 1974), 53-57.

The North Carolina prison system in responsive transition, by Walter L. Kautsky. 40 (Fall 1974), 46-51.

North Carolina's share of federal revenue-sharing funds, by Joseph S. Ferrell. 40 (Summer 1974), 50.

P

Phay, Robert E.
Student distribution of nonschool-sponsored literature. 40 (Spring 1975), 52-65.

PLANNING AND ZONING
Community appearance commissions: Chapel Hill's experience, by Sidney Cohn. 40 (Winter 1975), 15-26.

Land-use regulation: a state or local function --or both? By Philip P. Green, Jr. 40 (Summer 1974), 17-19.

POLITICS
Citizen boards--do they serve a purpose? By Dorothy J. Kiester. 40 (Winter 1975), 40-43.

Citizen participation in shaping public policy, by Dorothy J. Kiester. 40 (Summer 1974), 33-37.

Potter, William H., Jr.
Staff services to the North Carolina General Assembly. 40 (Spring 1975), 27-30.

The property tax in the 1970's, by William A. Campbell. 40 (Summer 1974), 12-16.

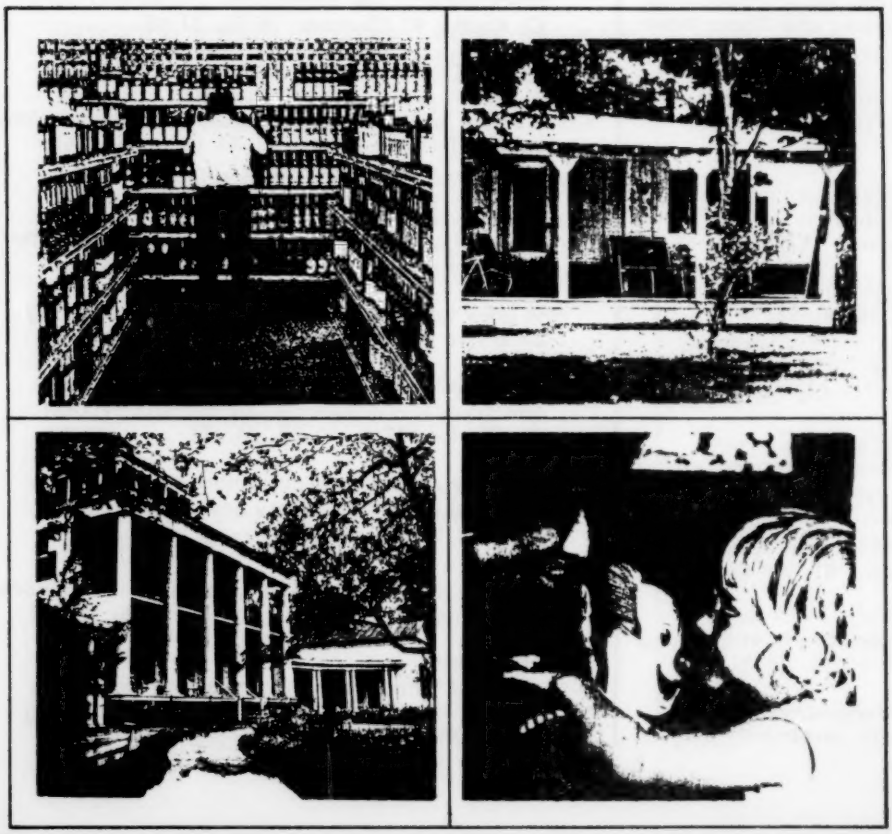
PROPERTY TAXATION
Accuracy and uniformity of property tax assessments in North Carolina, by C. Donald Liner. 40 (Winter 1975), 29-35.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

INDEX
Volume 41

Summer 1975-Spring 1976

INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill



POPULAR GOVERNMENT INDEX

SUMMER 1975–SPRING 1976

Volume 41

A

ALCOHOL, see INTOXICATING BEVERAGES

Allocation and conservation: the Triangle responds to the energy crisis, by Alfred R. Light, Robert Navazio and Rose Spaulding. 41 (Summer 1975). 44-[49].

Andrews, Kenneth
A municipality surveys its citizens. 41 (Summer 1975), 29-35.

B

Behar, Lenore
Early aid to mentally disturbed children. 41 (Spring 1976), 15-18.

Bohmback, James W.
The mayoralty and leadership in council-manager government. 41 (Winter 1976), 1-6.

BOOK REVIEWS
Housing in America: problems and perspectives, edited by Daniel R. Mandelker and Roger Montgomery. 41 (Summer 1975), 27-28.

Housing subsidies in the United States and England, by Daniel L. Mandelker, 41 (Summer 1975), 27-28.

Labor relations law in the public sector, by Russell A. Smith, Harry T. Edwards and R. Theodore Clarke, Jr. 41 (Summer 1975), 28, 35.

Land-use planning: cases and materials, by E. F. Roberts. 41 (Summer 1975), 27.

Management and control of growth, edited by Randall W. Scott. 41 (Winter 1976), [41].

Brough, Michael B.
Book review. 41 (Summer 1975), 28, 35.

Collective bargaining for public employees: perspectives and prospects. 41 (Winter 1976), 24-27, 31, 37.

Do mobile homes pay their own way? 41 (Summer 1975), 18-19.

Legal constraints upon the regulation of mobile homes. 41 (Summer 1975), 20-23.

State laws and the regulation of mobile homes. 41 (Summer 1975), 12-17.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY
State and local tax policies and industrial location decisions, by L. H. Revzan. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

C

Campbell, William A.
Property taxation of mobile homes. 41 (Summer 1975), 24-26, 43.

Capital planning and budgeting for local government, by A. John Vogt. 41 (Fall 1975), 12-17, 20-24, 37.

Changes in North Carolina's juvenile correction system, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 41 (Spring 1976), 26-29.

CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA
A study of self-reported delinquency in Charlotte/Mecklenburg, by Stevens H. Clarke and Gary G. Koch. 41 (Summer 1975), 37-43.

CHILD ABUSE, see SOCIAL SERVICES

Child abuse and neglect: its causes and prevention, by Dan Davis and others. 41 (Spring 1976), 1-4, 14.

Clarke, Stevens H.
A study of self-reported delinquency in Charlotte/Mecklenburg. 41 (Summer 1975), 37-43.

Who goes to prison? The likelihood of receiving an active sentence. 41 (Fall 1975), 25-37.

Collective bargaining for public employees: perspectives and prospects, by Michael Brough. 41 (Winter 1976), 24-27, 31, 37.

A community approach to child abuse and neglect, by Darst Murphy McNairy and others. 41 (Spring 1976), 10-14.

Consent required for the medical treatment of minors, by Thomas W. Ross. 41 (Spring 1976), 30-32.

CORRECTIONS
Changes in North Carolina's juvenile correction system, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 41 (Spring 1976), 26-29.

Work release in North Carolina's state prisons, by Ann D. Witte. 41 (Winter 1976), 32-37.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE
Who goes to prison? The likelihood of receiving an active sentence, by Stevens H. Clarke and Gary G. Koch. 41 (Fall 1975), 25-37.

Crowell, Michael
What should we have for drink? Legal controls on the use of alcohol in North Carolina. 41 (Fall 1975), 1-9.

D

Davis, Dan
Child abuse and neglect: its causes and prevention. 41 (Spring 1976), 1-4, 14.

Dellinger, Anne M.
Student rights--an opening door. 41 (Spring 1976), 33-34.

Dennis, Stephen N.
The Local Government Commission: helping the state's local units stay solvent. 41 (Winter 1976), 19-23.

Do mobile homes pay their own way? By Michael B. Brough. 41 (Summer 1975), 18-19.

The drunk-driving statute: how has it worked? By Ben F. Loeb, Jr. 41 (Winter 1976), 8-9.

E

Early aid to mentally disturbed children, by Lenore Behar. 41 (Spring 1976), 15-18.

EDUCATION, see SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

ELECTIONS
Presidential primary revisited, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 41 (Winter 1976), 38-40.

Primaries and power--presidential politics in North Carolina, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 41 (Fall 1975), 10-11.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION
Allocation and conservation: the Triangle reponds to the energy crisis, by Alfred R. Light, Robert Navazio and Rose Spaulding. 41 (Summer 1975), 44-[49].

The North Carolina Environmental Policy Act: neglected planning tool, by Charles E. Roe. 41 (Fall 1975), 44-48.

F

FINANCE AND TAXATION
Capital planning and budgeting for local government, by A. John Vogt. 41 (Fall 1975), 12-17, 20-24, 37.

The Local Government Commission: helping the state's local units stay solvent, by Stephen N. Dennis. 41 (Winter 1976), 19-23.

Morganton: a case study in capital planning, by Edward Wyatt. 41 (Fall 1975), 18-24, 37.

State and local tax policies and industrial location decisions, by L. H. Revzan. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

G

Green, Philip P., Jr.
Book reviews. 41 (Summer 1975), 27-28; 41 (Winter 1976), [41].

Griffin, Becky L.
Home is where the mobile is. 41 (Summer 1975), 11.

H

HEALTH LAW
Consent required for the medical treatment of minors, by Thomas W. Ross. 41 (Spring 1976), 30-32.

Early aid to mentally disturbed children, by Lenore Behar. 41 (Spring 1976), 15-18.

Voluntary admission of mentally impaired minors: constitutional considerations, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 41 (Spring 1976), 22-25.

Historic preservation through special property tax treatment, by Robert E. Stipe. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

Hogue, L. Lynn
Personal liability of governing board members: new developments in the law. 41 (Spring 1976), 44-52.

Home is where the mobile is, by Becky L. Griffin. 41 (Summer 1975), 11.

HOUSING
Do mobile homes pay their own way? By Michael B. Brough. 41 (Summer 1975), 18-19.

Home is where the mobile is, by Becky L. Griffin. 41 (Summer 1975), 11.

The impact of mobile homes on the housing market, by Barbara Noble Smith. 41 (Summer 1975), 1-10.

Legal constraints upon the regulation of mobile homes, by Michael B. Brough. 41 (Summer 1975), 20-23.

Property taxation of mobile homes, by William A. Campbell. 41 (Summer 1975), 24-26, 43.

State laws and the regulation of mobile homes, by Michael B. Brough. 41 (Summer 1975), 12-17.

I

The impact of mobile homes on the housing market, by Barbara Noble Smith. 41 (Summer 1975), 1-10.

INTOXICATING BEVERAGES
The drunk-driving statute: how has it worked? By Ben F. Loeb, Jr. 41 (Winter 1976), 8-9.

What should we have for drink? Legal controls on the use of alcohol in North Carolina, by Michael Crowell. 41 (Fall 1975), 1-9.

J

JUVENILES
A study of self-reported delinquency in Charlotte/Mecklenburg, by Stevens H. Clarke and Gary G. Koch. 41 (Summer 1975), 37-43.

K

Koch, Gary G.
A study of self-reported delinquency in Charlotte/Mecklenburg. 41 (Summer 1975), 37-43.

Who goes to prison? The likelihood of receiving an active sentence. 41 (Fall 1975), 25-37.

L

Legal constraints upon the regulation of mobile homes, by Michael B. Brough. 41 (Summer 1975), 20-23.

Light, Alfred R.
Allocation and conservation: the Triangle responds to the energy crisis. 41 (Summer 1975), 44-[49].

LOCAL GOVERNMENT, see COUNTIES; MUNICIPALITIES; INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS

The Local Government Commission: helping the state's local units stay solvent, by Stephen N. Dennis. 41 (Winter 1976), 19-23.

Loeb, Ben F., Jr.
The drunk-driving statute: how has it worked? 41 (Winter 1976), 8-9.

M

McNairy, Darst Murphy
A community approach to child abuse and neglect. 41 (Spring 1976), 10-14.

The mayoralty and leadership in council-manager government, by James H. Svara and James M. Bohmback. 41 (Winter 1976), 1-6.

Mazer, Larry
A municipality surveys its citizens. 41 (Summer 1975), 29-35.

MECKLENBURG COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA
A study of self-reported delinquency in Charlotte/Mecklenburg, by Stevens H. Clarke and Gary G. Koch. 41 (Summer 1975), 37-43.

MENTAL HEALTH, see HEALTH LAW

MOBILE HOMES, see HOUSING

Morganton: a case study in capital planning. 41 (Fall 1975), 18-24, 37.

MUNICIPALITIES
The mayoralty and leadership in council-manager government, by James H. Svara and James W. Bohmback. 41 (Winter 1976), 1-6.

A municipality surveys its citizens, by Larry Mazer and Kenneth Andrews. 41 (Summer 1975), 29-35.

A municipality surveys its citizens, by Larry Mazer and Kenneth Andrews. 41 (Summer 1975), 29-35.

N

Navazio, Robert
Allocation and conservation: the Triangle responds to the energy crisis. 41 (Summer 1975), 44-[49].

The North Carolina Environmental Policy Act: neglected planning tool, by Charles E. Roe. 41 (Fall 1975), 44-48.

North Carolina's Child Abuse Reporting Law, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 41 (Spring 1976), 6-9.

P

Personal liability of governing boards: new developments in the law, by L. Lynn Hogue. 41 (Spring 1976), 44-52.

PERSONNEL
Collective bargaining for public employees: perspectives and prospects, by Michael Brough. 41 (Winter 1976), 24-27, 31, 37.

Phay, Robert E.
Searches of students: constitutional questions. 41 (Fall 1975), 38-43.

School discipline based on the marital or parental status of students. 41 (Winter 1976), 28-31, 37.

A pilot project in educating handicapped children, by Ann Sanford. 41 (Spring 1976), 19-21.

PLANNING AND ZONING
Historic preservation through special property tax treatment, by Robert E. Stipe. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

Presidential primary revisited, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 41 (Winter 1976), 38-40.

Primaries and power--presidential politics in North Carolina, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 41 (Fall 1975), 10-11.

PROPERTY TAXATION
Property taxation of mobile homes, by William A. Campbell. 41 (Summer 1975), 24-26, 43.

Property taxation of mobile homes, by William A. Campbell. 41 (Summer 1975), 24-26, 43.

R

Revzan, L. H.
State and local tax policies and industrial location decisions. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

Roe, Charles E.
The North Carolina Environmental Policy Act: neglected planning tool. 41 (Fall 1975), 44-48.

Rogister, George T.
School discipline based on the marital or parental status of students. 41 (Winter 1976), 28-31, 37.

Searches of students: constitutional questions. 41 (Fall 1975), 38-43.

Student rights--an opening door. 41 (Spring 1976), 33-43.

Ross, Thomas W.
Consent required for the medical treatment of minors. 41 (Spring 1976), 30-32.

S

Sanford, Ann
A pilot project in educating handicapped children. (Spring 1976), 19-21.

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION
Personal liability of governing board members: new developments in the law, by L. Lynn Hogue. 41 (Spring 1976), 44-52.

A pilot project in educating handicapped children, by Ann Sanford. 41 (Spring 1976), 19-21.

School discipline based on the marital or parental status of students, by George T. Rogister and Robert E. Phay. 41 (Winter 1976), 28-31, 37.

Searches of students: constitutional questions, by Robert E. Phay and George T. Rogister, Jr. 41 (Fall 1975), 38-43.

Student rights--an opening door, by Anne M. Dellinger and George T. Rogister. 41 (Spring 1976), 33-43.

School discipline based on the marital or parental status of students, by George T. Rogister and Robert E. Phay. 41 (Winter 1976), 28-31, 37.

Searches of students: constitutional questions, by Robert E. Phay and George T. Rogister, Jr. 41 (Fall 1975), 38-43.

Smith, Barbara Noble
The impact of mobile homes on the housing market. 41 (Summer 1975), 1-10.

SOCIAL SERVICES
Child abuse and neglect: its causes and prevention, by Dan Davis and others. 41 (Spring 1976), 1-4, 14.

A community approach to child abuse and neglect, by Darst Murphy McNairy and others. 41 (Spring 1976), 10-14.

North Carolina's Child Abuse Reporting Law, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 41 (Spring 1976), 6-9.

A pilot project in educating handicapped children, by Ann Sanford. 41 (Spring 1976), 19-21.

Spaulding, Rose
Allocation and conservation: the Triangle responds to the energy crisis. 41 (Summer 1975), 44-[49].

State and local tax policies and industrial location decisions, by L. H. Revzan. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

State laws and the regulation of mobile homes, by Michael B. Brough. 41 (Summer 1975), 12-17.

Stipe, Robert E.
Historic preservation through special property tax treatment. 41 (Winter 1976), 10-14.

Student rights-an opening door, by Anne M. Dellinger and George T. Rogister. 41 (Spring 1976), 33-43.

A study of self-reported delinquency in Charlotte/Mecklenburg, by Stevens H. Clarke and Gary G. Koch. 41 (Summer 1975), 37-43.

Svara, James H.
The mayoralty and leadership in council-manager government. 41 (Winter 1976), 1-6.

T

TAXES, see FINANCE AND TAXATION: PROPERTY TAXATION.

Thomas, Mason P., Jr.
Changes in North Carolina's juvenile correction system. 41 (Spring 1976), 26-29.

North Carolina's Child Abuse Reporting Law. 41 (Spring 1976), 6-9.

TRIANGLE J PLANNING DISTRICT
Allocation and conservation: the Triangle responds to the energy crisis, by Alfred R. Light, Robert Navazio and Rose Spaulding. 41 (Summer 1975), 44-[49].

Turnbull, H. Rutherford III
Presidential primary revisited. 41 (Winter 1976), 38-40.

Primaries and power--presidential politics in in North Carolina. 41 (Fall 1975), 10-11.

Voluntary admission of mentally impaired minors: constitutional considerations. 41 (Spring 1976), 22-25.

Vogt, A. John
Capital planning and budgeting for local government. 41 (Fall 1975), 12-17, 20-24, 37.

Voluntary admission of mentally impaired minors: constitutional considerations, by H. Rutherford Turnbull III. 41 (Spring 1976), 22-25.

W

What should we have for drink? Legal controls on the use of alcohol in North Carolina, by Michael Crowell. 41 (Fall 1975), 1-9.

Who goes to prison? The likelihood of receiving an active sentence, by Stevens H. Clarke and Gary Koch. 41 (Fall 1975), 25-37.

Witte, Ann D.
Work release in North Carolina's state prisons. 41 (Winter 1976), 32-37.

Work release in North Carolina's state prisons, by Ann D. Witte. 41 (Winter 1976), 32-37.

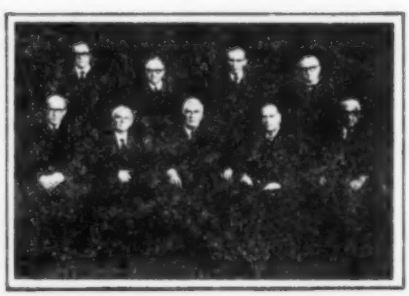
Wyatt, Edward
Morganton: a case study in capital planning. 41 (Fall 1975), 18-24, 37.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

INDEX
Volume 42

Summer 1976 - Spring 1977

INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill



POPULAR GOVERNMENT INDEX

SUMMER 1976 - SPRING 1977

Volume 42

B

BOOK REVIEWS
The nuclear power controversy, edited by Arthur W. Murphy, Reviewed by William A. Campbell. 42 (Spring 1977), 47, 53.

Brannon, Joan G.
1976 General Assembly: a recap. 42 (Summer 1976), 1-15, 37.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: courts. 42 (Winter 1977), 15-17, 30.

Brown, Duane
Current issues in education. 42 (Spring 1977), 1-8.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY
Manufacturing wage rates, plant location, and plant location policies, by Barry M. Moriarty. 42 (Spring 1977), 48-53.

C

Campbell, William A.
Book review: The nuclear power controversy, edited by Arthur W. Murphy. 42 (Spring 1977), 47, 53.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: environmental law. 42 (Winter 1977), 21-22.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: property taxation. 42 (Winter 1977), 50.

City and county finance in North Carolina, by Warren J. Wicker. 42 (Fall 1976), 31-38.

Clarke, Stevens H.
The effectiveness of bail systems. 42 (Summer 1976), 22-37.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: corrections. 42 (Winter 1977), 6-14.

Clary, Bruce B.
What are our most important environmental problems? A survey of 1,000 influential North Carolinians. 42 (Fall 1976), 10-13, 38.

COATES, ALBERT
The Institute honors its founder: presentation of the bust of Albert Coates. 42 (Fall 1976), 1-9.

Coop, Richard H.
Standardized Tests and the schools. 42 (Spring 1977), 28-34.

CORRECTIONS
How the North Carolina Parole Commission makes decisions, by Colleen A. Cosgrove. 42 (Fall 1976), 19-25.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: corrections, by Stevens H. Clarke. 42 (Winter 1977), 6-14.

A parole commission survey of sentencing judges, by Jack Scism. 42 (Fall 1976), 14-18.

Cosgrove, Colleen A.
How the North Carolina Parole Commission makes decisions. 42 (Fall 1976), 19-25.

COURTS
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: capital punishment, by Michael Crowell. 42 (Winter 1977), 2-5, 14.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: corrections, by Stevens H. Clarke. 42 (Winter 1977), 6-14.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: courts, by C. E. Hinsdale and Joan G. Brannon. 42 (Winter 1977), 15-17, 30.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: election law, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Winter 1977), 18-20.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: environmental law, by William A. Campbell. 42 (Winter 1977), 21-22.

Protecting the alleged mentally ill in the courtroom, by Virginia A. Hiday. 42 (Fall 1976), 26-30.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE
The effectiveness of bail systems, by Stevens H. Clarke, Jean L. Freeman and Gary G. Koch. 42 (Summer 1976), 22-37.

How the North Carolina Parole Commission makes decisions, by Colleen A. Cosgrove. 42 (Fall 1976), 19-25.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: capital punishment, by Michael Crowell. 42 (Winter 1977), 2-5, 14.

A parole commission survey of sentencing judges, by Jack Scism. 42 (Fall 1976), 14-18.

Criner, Calvin L.
Non-public schools in North Carolina. 42 (Spring 1977), 35-41.

Crowell, Michael
1976 General Assembly: a recap. 42 (Summer 1976), 1-15, 37.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: capital punishment, by Michael Crowell. 42 (Winter 1977), 2-5, 14.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

Current issues in education, by Duane Brown and Gary Stuck. 42 (Spring 1977), 1-8.

D

Dellinger, Anne M.
How it looks after fifteen years on the school board: an interview with Mary Scroggs. 42 (Spring 1977), 42-46.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: schools. 42 (Winter 1977), 51-54.

Dolce, Carl J.
On the governance of public elementary and secondary education in North Carolina. 42 (Spring 1977), 9-12, 34.

Drennan, James C.
1976 General Assembly: a recap. 42 (Summer 1976), 1-15, 37.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

E

EDUCATION, see SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION

The effectiveness of bail systems by Stevens H. Clarke, Jean L. Freeman and Gary G. Koch. 42 (Summer 1976), 22-37.

ELECTIONS
1976 Democratic presidential primary in North Carolina, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Summer 1976), 16-21.

The 1976 general election in North Carolina: a statistical overview, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Spring 1977), 54-61.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: election law, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Winter 1977), 18-20.

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: environmental law, by William A. Campbell. 42 (Winter 1977), 21-22.

What are our most important environmental problems? A survey of 1,000 influential North Carolinians, by Bruce B. Clary, Charles E. Roe and Emilie F. Swearingen. 42 (Fall 1976), 10-13, 38.

F

FINANCE AND TAXATION
City and county finance in North Carolina, by Warren J. Wicker. 42 (Fall 1976), 31-38.

Freeman, Jean L.
The effectiveness of bail systems. 42 (Summer 1976), 22-37.

G

Gill, Douglas R.
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: law enforcement procedures. 42 (Winter 1977), 31-35.

H

Hayman, Donald B.
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

HEALTH LAW
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: health law, by Patrice Solberg and H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Winter 1977), 23-30.

Protecting the alleged mentally ill in the court-room, by Virginia A. Hiday. 42 (Fall 1976), 26-30.

Hiday, Virginia A.
Protecting the alleged mentally ill in the court-room. 42 (Fall 1976), 26-30.

Hinsdale, C. E.
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: courts. 42 (Winter 1977), 15-17, 30.

Hogue, L. Lynn
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

How it looks after fifteen years on the school board: an interview with Mary Scroggs, by Anne M. Dellinger. 42 (Spring 1977), 42-46.

How the North Carolina Parole Commission makes decisions, by Colleen A. Cosgrove. 42 (Fall 1976), 19-25.

I

INDUSTRY, see BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY.

The Institute honors its founder: presentation of the bust of Albert Coates. 42 (Fall 1976), 1-9.

INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT
The Institute honors its founder: presentation of the bust of Albert Coates. 42 (Fall 1976), 1-9.

INTOXICATING BEVERAGES
The North Carolina DUI law: an update, by Ben F. Loeb, Jr. 42 (Fall 1976), 39-40.

K

Koch, Gary G.
The effectiveness of bail systems. 42 (Summer 1976), 22-37.

L

LABOR
Manufacturing wage rates, plant location, and policies, by Barry M. Moriarty. 42 (Spring 1977), 48-53.

LAW ENFORCEMENT
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: law enforcement procedures, by Douglas R. Gill. 42 (Winter 1977), 31-35.

LEGISLATION AND THE LEGISLATURE
1976 General Assembly: a recap, by Joan G. Brannon and others. 42 (Summer 1976), 1-15, 37.

Liner, C. Donald
Public school finance. 42 (Spring 1977), 13-19.

Loeb, Ben F., Jr.
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

The North Carolina DUI law: an update. 42 (Fall 1976), 39-40.

Long-term school enrollment trends in North Carolina, by Harry M. Rosenberg. 42 (Spring 1977), 20-27, 34.

M

Manufacturing wage rates, plant location, and plant location policies, by Barry M. Moriarty. 42 (Spring 1977), 48-53.

MENTAL HEALTH, see HEALTH LAW

Moriarty, Barry M.
Manufacturing wage rates, plant location, and plant location policies. 42 (Spring 1977), 48-53.

N

1976 Democratic presidential primary in North Carolina, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Summer 1976), 16-21.

1976 General Assembly: a recap, by Joan G. Brannon and others. 42 (Summer 1976), 1-15, 37.

The 1976 general election in North Carolina: a statistical overview, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Spring 1977), 54-61.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: capital punishment, by Michael Crowell. 42 (Winter 1977), 2-5, 14.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: corrections, by Stevens H. Clarke. 42 (Winter 1977), 6-14.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: courts, by C. E. Hinsdale and Joan G. Brannon. 42 (Winter 1977), 15-17, 30.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: election law, by H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Winter 1977), 18-20.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: environmental law, by William A. Campbell. 42 (Winter 1977), 21-22.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: health law, by Patrice Solberg and H. R. Turnbull, III. 42 (Winter 1977), 23-30.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: law enforcement procedures, by Douglas R. Gill. 42 (Winter 1977), 31-35.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel, by Michael Crowell and others. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: property taxation, by William A. Campbell. 42 (Winter 1977), 50.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: schools, by Anne M. Dellinger. 42 (Winter 1977), 51-54.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: social services, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 42 (Winter 1977), 55-56.

Non-public schools in North Carolina, by Calvin L. Criner. 42 (Spring 1977), 35-41.

The North Carolina DUI law: an update, by Ben F. Loeb, Jr. 42 (Fall 1976), 39-40.

O

On the governance of public elementary and secondary education in North Carolina, by Carl J. Dolce. 42 (Spring 1977), 9-12, 34.

P

A parole commission survey of sentencing judges, by Jack Scism. 42 (Fall 1976), 14-18.

PAROLE, see CORRECTIONS

PERSONNEL
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel, by Michael Crowell and others. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

Phay, Robert E.
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: personnel. 42 (Winter 1977), 36-49.

PROPERTY TAXATION
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: property taxation, by William A. Campbell. 42 (Winter 1977), 50.

Protecting the alleged mentally ill in the courtroom, by Virginia A. Hiday. 42 (Fall 1976), 26-30.

Public school finance, by C. Donald Liner. 42 (Spring 1977), 13-19.

R

Roe, Charles E.
What are our most important environmental problems? A survey of 1,000 influential North Carolinians. 42 (Fall 1976), 10-13, 38.

Rogister, George T.
1976 General Assembly: a recap. 42 (Summer 1976), 1-15, 37.

Rosenberg, Harry M.
Long-term school enrollment trends in North Carolina. 42 (Spring 1977), 20-27, 34.

S

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION
Current issues in education, by Duane Brown and Gary Stuck. 42 (Spring 1977), 1-8.

How it looks after fifteen years on the school board: an interview with Mary Scroggs, by Anne M. Dellinger. 42 (Spring 1977), 42-46.

Long-term school enrollment trends in North Carolina, by Harry M. Rosenberg. 42 (Spring 1977), 20-27, 34.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: schools, by Anne M. Dellinger. 42 (Winter 1977), 51-54.

Non-public schools in North Carolina, by Calvin L. Criner. 42 (Spring 1977), 35-41.

On the governance of public elementary and secondary education in North Carolina, by Carl J. Dolce. 42 (Spring 1977), 9-12, 34.

Public school finance, by C. Donald Liner. 42 (Spring 1977), 13-19.

Standardized tests and the schools, by Richard H. Coop and Kinnard White. 42 (Spring 1977), 28-34.

Scism, Jack
A parole commission survey of sentencing judges. 42 (Fall 1976), 14-18.

SCROGGS, MARY
How it looks after fifteen years on the school board: an interview with Mary Scroggs, by Anne M. Dellinger. 42 (Spring 1977), 42-46.

SOCIAL SERVICES
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: social services, by Mason P. Thomas, Jr. 42 (Winter 1977), 55-56.

Solberg, Patrice
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: health law. 42 (Winter 1977), 23-30.

Standardized tests and the schools, by Richard H. Coop and Kinnard White. 42 (Spring 1977), 28-34.

Stuck, Gary
Current issues in education. 42 (Spring 1977), 1-8.

Swearingen, Emilie F.
What are our most important environmental problems? A survey of 1,000 influential North Carolinians. 42 (Fall 1976), 10-13, 38.

T

TAXATION, see FINANCE AND TAXATION; PROPERTY TAXATION

Thomas, Mason P., Jr.
1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: social services. 42 (Winter 1977), 55-56.

Turnbull, H. Rutherford, III
1976 Democratic presidential primary in North Carolina. 42 (Summer 1976), 16-21.

The 1976 general election in North Carolina: a statistical overview. 42 (Spring 1977), 54-61.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: election law. 42 (Winter 1977), 18-20.

1976 Supreme Court decisions affecting state and local government: health law. 42 (Winter 1977), 23-30.

W

What are our most important environmental problems? A survey of 1,000 influential North Carolinians, by Bruce B. Clary, Charles E. Roe and Emilie F. Swearingen. 42 (Fall 1976), 10-13, 38.

White, Kinnard
Standardized tests and the schools. 42 (Spring 1977), 28-34.

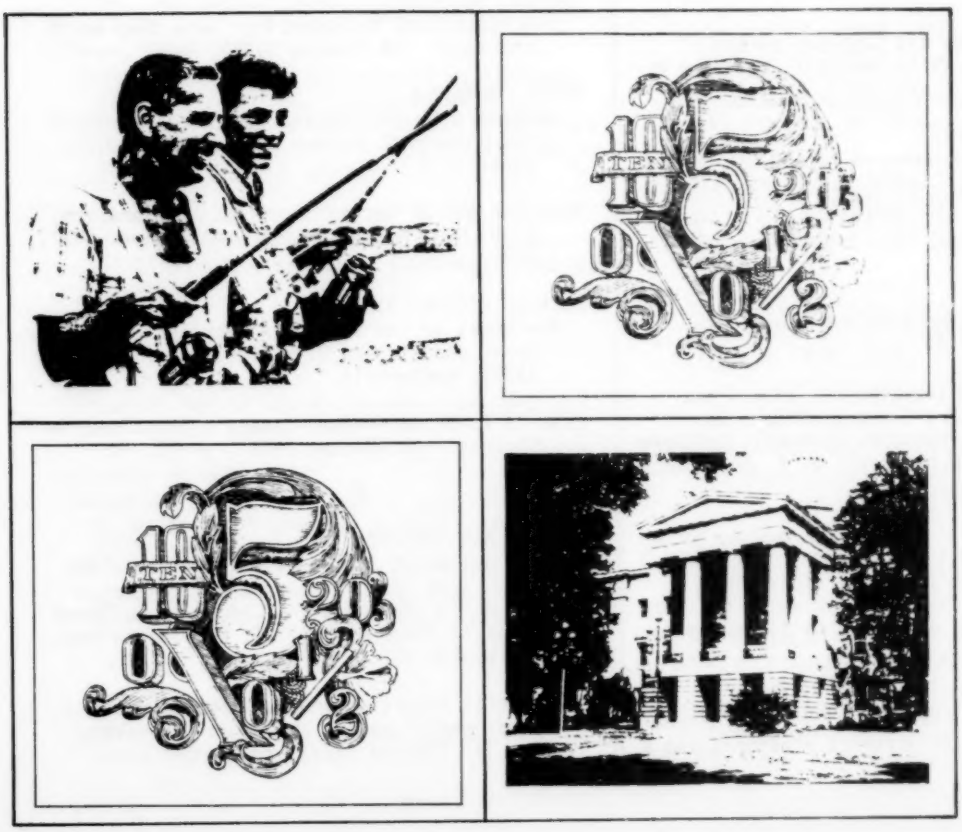
Wicker, Warren J.
City and county finance in North Carolina. 42 (Fall 1976), 31-38.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

INDEX
Volume 43

Summer 1977—Spring 1978

INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT
The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill



POPULAR GOVERNMENT INDEX

SUMMER 1977—SPRING 1978

Volume 43

A

ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE, see COURTS.

B

Ball, Clyde
Legislating in the old Capitol: Clyde Ball and Shelton Pritchard remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 21-27.

Ballard, Ruth
Tarboro steps into the future: making the most of grant money. 43 (Winter 1978), 14-28.

Boyles, Harlan E.
Marketing municipal bonds in today's full-disclosure environment. 43 (Winter 1978), 7-9.

Brubaker, C. Paul, Jr.
Financial reporting and auditing in local governmental units. 43 (Spring 1978), 39-44.

Bryant, Victor
Legislating in the old Capitol: Victor Bryant and Tom White remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 12-21.

BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY
The sun belt phenomenon--a second war between the states? By Charles D. Liner. 43 (Summer 1977), 16-18, 23-24.

C

Calhoon, Richard P.
Supercoach: working with employees. 43 (Fall 1977), 32-40.

Cash management and investments [interviews with Larry Fisher, finance officer for Asheville, and Thomas H. Cashwell, Guilford County's finance officer], by A. John Vogt. 43 (Winter 1978), 29-39.

Cashwell, Thomas H.
Cash management and investments [interviews with Larry Fisher, finance officer for Asheville, and Thomas H. Cashwell, Guilford County's finance officer], by A. John Vogt. 43 (Winter 1978), 29-39.

Clary, Bruce B.
Raleigh's charter changes: how its citizens view the switch to district elections and a popularly elected mayor. 43 (Fall 1977), 41-45, 49.

Composition of the North Carolina Legislature, 1967-77, by Michael Crowell. 43 (Summer 1977), 30-35.

Corporal punishment in North Carolina schools: the aftermath of Ingraham, by Patricia Johnston. 43 (Fall 1977), 48-49.

CORRECTIONS
Prisoners who return to crime: North Carolina's recidivism rate. 43 (Summer 1977), 36-40.

Crowell, Michael
Composition of the North Carolina Legislature, 1967-77. 43 (Summer 1977), 30-35.

D

Dankel, Susan G.
New approaches to budgeting: are they worth the cost? 43 (Spring 1978), 1-10.

DAVIS, BONNIE E.
Newcomers to the Institute: Bonnie E. Davis and Richard D. Ducker. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

Dropping out of Social Security: pro and con, by H. Gray Hutchison, Sr. 43 (Summer 1977), 1-8.

DUCKER, RICHARD D.
Newcomers to the Institute faculty: Bonnie E. Davis and Richard D. Ducker. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

Estelle T. Wicker--Moore County's first lady of finance. 43 (Winter 1978), 10-12, 40.

F

FINANCE AND TAXATION
Cash management and investments [interviews with Larry Fisher, finance officer for Asheville and Thomas H. Cashwell, Guilford County's finance officer], by A. John Vogt. 43 (Winter 1978), 29-39.

Financial reporting and auditing in local governmental units, by C. Paul Brubaker, Jr. 43 (Spring 1978), 39-44.

The Local Government Commission and North Carolina state and local government finance, by J. D. Foust. 43 (Winter 1978), 10-12,40.

Local government debt in North Carolina--an introduction, by David M. Lawrence. 43 (Winter 1978), 1-6.

Marketing municipal bonds in today's full-disclosure environment, by Harlan E. Boyles. 43 (Winter 1978), 7-9.

New approaches to budgeting: are they worth the cost? By Malchus L. Watlington and Susan G. Dankel. 43 (Spring 1978), 1-10.

Operating revenues of North Carolina municipal governments: effect of municipal size, by A. John Vogt. 43 (Spring 1978), 21-31.

Operating revenues of North Carolina municipal governments: overview and comparison of electric and nonelectric cities, by A. John Vogt. 43 (Spring 1978), 11-20.

Projecting local government revenue, by Charles D. Liner. 43 (Spring 1978), 32-38, 45.

State budget growth, 1971-72 to 1977-78, by Charles D. Liner. 43 (Fall 1977), 46-47.

Financial reporting and auditing in local governmental units, by C. Paul Brubaker, Jr. 43 (Spring 1978), 39-44.

Fisher, Larry
Cash management and investments [interviews with Larry Fisher, finance officer for Asheville, and Thomas H. Cashwell, Guilford County's finance officer], by A. John Vogt. 43 (Winter 1978), 29-39.

Foust, J. D.
The Local Government Commission and North Carolina state and local government finance. 43 (Winter 1978), 10-12, 40.

H

Hutchison, H. Gray, Sr.
Dropping out of Social Security: pro and con. 43 (Summer 1977), 1-8.

INSTITUTE OF GOVERNMENT
Newcomers to the Institute faculty: Bonnie E. Davis and Richard D. Ducker. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

The state of the Institute, by Henry W. Lewis. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

J

Jerdee, Thomas H.
Supercoach: working with employees. 43 (Fall 1977), 32-40.

Johnston, Patricia
Corporal punishment in North Carolina schools: the aftermath of Ingraham. 43 (Fall 1977), 48-49.

L

Lawrence, David M.
Local government debt in North Carolina--an introduction. 43 (Winter 1978), 1-6.

LEGISLATION AND THE LEGISLATURE
Composition of the North Carolina Legislature, 1967-77, by Michael Crowell. 43 (Summer 1977), 30-35.

Legislating in the old Capitol:
Clyde Ball and Shelton Pritchard remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 21-27.

Legislating in the old Capitol: Victor Bryant and Tom White remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 12-21.

Lewis, Henry W.
The state of the Institute. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

Liner, Charles D.
Projecting local government revenue. 43 (Spring 1978). 32-38, 45.

Property tax relief through a circuit-breaker system. 43 (Fall 1977), 28-31, 47.

State budget growth, 1971-72 to 1977-78. 43 (Fall 1977), 46-47.

The sun belt phenomenon--a second war between the states? 43 (Summer 1977), 16-18, 23-24.

The Local Government Commission and North Carolina state and local government finance, by J. D. Foust. 43 (Winter 1978), 10-12, 40.

Local government debt in North Carolina--an introduction, by David M. Lawrence. 43 (Winter 1978), 1-6.

M

Marketing municipal bonds in today's full-disclosure environment, by Harlan E. Boyles. 43 (Winter 1978), 7-9.

MOORE COUNTY
Estelle T. Wicker--Moore County's first lady of finance. 43 (Winter 1978), 10-12, 40.

MUNICIPALITIES
Raleigh's charter changes: how its citizens view the switch to district elections and a popularly elected mayor, by Bruce B. Clary and J. Oliver Williams. 43 (Fall 1977), 41-45, 49.

N

New approaches to budgeting: are they worth the cost? By Malchus L. Watlington and Susan G. Dankel. 43 (Spring 1978), 1-10.

Newcomers to the Institute: Bonnie E. Davis and Richard D. Ducker. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

NORTH CAROLINA
Summertime and the livin' is easy: the quality of life in the South, by John Shelton Reed. 43 (Summer 1977), 25-29.

O

Oettinger, Elmer R.
Legislating in the old Capitol: Clyde Ball and Shelton Pritchard remember. 43 (Fall 1977), 21-27.

Legislating in the old Capitol: Victor Bryant and Tom White remember. 43 (Fall 1977), 12-21.

Operating revenues of North Carolina municipal governments: effect of municipal size, by A. John Vogt. 43 (Spring 1978), 21-31.

Operating revenues of North Carolina municipal governments: overview and comparison of electric and nonelectric cities, by A. John Vogt. 43 (Spring 1978), 11-20.

P

PERSONNEL
Supercoach: working with employees, by Richard P. Calhoon and Thomas H. Jerdee. 43 (Fall 1977), 32-40.

Phay, Robert E.
A primer on due process for student expulsions. 43 (Summer 1977), 9-15.

PLANNING AND ZONING
Tarboro steps into the future: making the most of grant money, by Ruth Ballard. 43 (Winter 1978), 14-28.

A primer on due process for student expulsions, by Robert E. Phay. 43 (Summer 1977), 9-15.

Prisoners who return to crime: North Carolina's recidivism rate. 43 (Summer 1977), 36-40.

Pritchard, Shelton
Legislating in the old Capitol: Clyde Ball and Shelton Pritchard remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 21-27.

Projecting local government revenue, by Charles D. Liner. 43 (Spring 1978), 32-38, 45.

Property tax relief through a circuit-breaker system, by Charles D. Liner. 43 (Fall 1977), 28-31, 47.

PROPERTY TAXATION
Property tax relief through a circuit-breaker system, by Charles D. Liner. 43 (Fall 1977), 28-31, 47.

R

Raleigh's charter changes: how its citizens view the switch to district elections and a popularly elected mayor, by Bruce B. Clary and J. Oliver Williams. 43 (Fall 1977), 41-45, 49.

Reed, John Shelton
Summertime and the livin' is easy: the quality of life in the South. 43 (Summer 1977), 25-29.

S

Sanders, John L.
"This political temple, the Capitol of North Carolina." 43 (Fall 1977), 1-10.

SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION
Corporal punishment in North Carolina schools: the aftermath of Ingraham, by Patricia Johnston. 43 (Fall 1977), 48-49.

A primer on due process for student expulsions, by Robert E. Phay. 43 (Summer 1977), 9-15.

SOCIAL SECURITY
Dropping out of Social Security: pro and con, by H. Gray Hutchison, Sr. 43 (Summer 1977), 18.

State budget growth, 1971-72 to 1977-78, by Charles D. Liner. 43 (Fall 1977), 46-47.

STATE GOVERNMENT
Legislating in the old Capitol: Clyde Ball and Shelton Pritchard remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 21-27.

Legislating in the old Capitol: Victor Bryant and Tom White remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 12-21.

"This political temple, the Capitol of North Carolina," by John L. Sanders. 43 (Fall 1977), 1-10.

The state of the Institute, by Henry W. Lewis. 43 (Summer 1977), centerfold.

Summertime and the livin' is easy: the quality of life in the South, by John Shelton Reed. 43 (Summer 1977), 25-29.

The sun belt phenomenon--a second war between the states? By Charles D. Liner. 43 (Summer 1977), 16-18, 23-24.

Supercoach: working with employees, by Richard P. Calhoon and Thomas H. Jerdee. 43 (Fall 1977), 32-40.

T

Tarboro steps into the future: making the most of grant money, by Ruth Ballard. 43 (Winter 1978), 14-28.

"This political temple, the capitol of North Carolina," by John L. Sanders. 43 (Fall 1977), 1-10.

Vogt, A. John
Cash management and investments [interviews with Larry Fisher, finance officer for Asheville and Thomas H. Cashwell, Guilford County's finance officer]. 43 (Winter 1978), 29-39.

Operating revenues of North Carolina municipal governments: effect of municipal size. 43 (Spring 1978), 21-31.

Operating revenues of North Carolina municipal governments: overview and comparison of electric and nonelectric cities. 43 (Spring 1978), 11-20.

W

Watlington, Malchus L.
New approaches to budgeting: are they worth the cost? 43 (Spring 1978), 1-10.

White, Tom
Legislating in the old Capitol: Victor Bryant and Tom White remember, by Elmer R. Oettinger. 43 (Fall 1977), 12-21.

WICKER, ESTELLE T.
Estelle T. Wicker--Moore County's first lady of finance. 43 (Winter 1978), 10-12, 40.

Williams, J. Oliver
Raleigh's charter changes: how its citizens view the switch to district elections and a popularly elected mayor. 43 (Fall 1977), 41-45, 49.